

ECHOES and REFLECTIONS

Leaders in Holocaust Education

What Is Echoes and Reflections?

Echoes and Reflections is the Holocaust Memorial Center's comprehensive Holocaust education program that provides professional development and a rich array of resources for middle and high school teachers. The program prepares educators to teach about the Holocaust in a way that stimulates engagement and critical thinking while providing opportunities for students to see the relevance of this complex history in their own lives.

Why Teach about the Holocaust?

Teaching about the Holocaust using Echoes and Reflections helps students make connections with the past, gain relevant insight into human dilemmas and difficult social challenges, and determine their roles and responsibilities in the world around them.

Why Use Echoes and Reflections?

It's relevant

Individual stories and visual history testimonies from survivors, liberators, and other witnesses of the Holocaust help students examine contemporary social issues related to fairness and justice.

It's resource-intensive

Extensive primary and secondary source materials, aligned with modular, interdisciplinary lessons, help students understand what happened during the Holocaust, why it happened, and how it relates to difficult issues they face today.

It's up-to-date

Teacher-friendly materials address academic standards and incorporate a mix of instructional strategies and technologies for use in 21st century classrooms.

It's accessible

Echoes and Reflections provides value to both experienced Holocaust educators who are supplementing their curricula and to teachers new to Holocaust education. Every participant receives a free, comprehensive Teacher's Resource Guide.
