This photograph fits the prompt: “How wonderful it is that no one need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.” It fits it because it shows an image of a silhouette going into the light, out of the darkness, and into the unknown. The light symbolizes good and hope, and that is why she is going towards it, because she is heading to an improved world. The darkness around her symbolizes the world she is trying to leave behind that needs fixing. She does not know what may lay on the other side, but she knows that it will be much better than the world that she is leaving behind, and so does not look back. She is not wasting a single moment for something else or someone else, but instead is starting it all by herself, without hesitation. It is the moment where we decide to take a stand and fight for what is right.
