39TH ANNIVERSARY BENEFIT HONOREES CYNTHIA AND MARVIN ZUCKER

Cynthia and Marvin Zucker believe that Holocaust education empowers our community to stand up to hatred and antisemitism.

Cynthia is a retired nurse and educator. Throughout her career, culminating as President of the Highland Lakes Campus of Oakland Community College, Cynthia focused on education. She sees The Zekelman Holocaust Center as a resource for students to develop critical thinking, allowing them to take meaningful action in their communities as they grow.

Marvin, the son of Holocaust survivors who met at a Russian labor camp, is the retired Managing Director of the Zucker Dines Investment Group at Wells Fargo. His parents didn't discuss the Holocaust at home, yet his childhood was shaped by their harrowing experiences. Cynthia and Marvin are dedicated to the survival of the Jewish people and keeping the stories of the Holocaust alive when antisemitism is on the rise and the generation of survivors passes on. As parents and grandparents, they feel a moral obligation to never forget and to create a brighter future in which the next generation can thrive.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER DANA BASH

Dana Bash is CNN's chief political correspondent, anchor of "Inside Politics with Dana Bash," and co-anchor of "State of the Union with Jake Tapper and Dana Bash." She covers both campaigns and Congress and frequently moderates CNN's political town halls and presidential debates.

Bash informs audiences on topics including the national political mood, women in politics, and her own connection to Judaism. With white nationalists perpetrating deadly shootings, Bash has taken an in-depth look in a CNN Special Report, "Rising Hate: Antisemitism in America." She visited Jewish communities still reeling from recent violence, including Poway, California, and the Temple in Colleyville, Texas, where an extremist antisemite took congregants hostage. The report digs into the complex reasons for growing antisemitism in the U.S. and, most importantly, explores ways to help curb it.

Bash is the winner of the National Press Foundation's 2019 Sol Taishoff Award for Excellence in Broadcast Journalism and graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in political communications from The George Washington University.
