Chief Rabbi of Poland speaks at memorial center

Rabbi Michael Schudrich, the Chief Rabbi of Poland, will present "Polish Jewry Today: Fact and Fiction" at 11:15 a.m., Sunday, May 21 at the Holocaust Memorial Center (HMC) Zekelman Family Campus, 28123 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills.

The event, which will start with coffee and bagels at 10:30 a.m., is presented by the Wayne State University's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and The Guy Stern Endowment in Exile and Holocaust Studies.

Rabbi Schudrich has been instrumental in reviving the once-vibrant Polish Jewish life and culture by acting as the official intermediary with the Polish government and Catholic Church, counseling those who have discovered their Jewish background, coordinating programming and helping to preserve Jewish heritage sites.

Prior to moving to Warsaw in 1992, he served as rabbi of the Jewish community in Japan.

The cost to attend is $5 for members and $10 for nonmembers.

Seating is limited so call 248-536-9605 or email rsvp@holocaustcenter.org to RSVP.
