JANUARY 19

Anne Frank

To launch the exhibit "Anne Frank: A History for Today," the Holocaust Memorial Center in Farmington Hills presents a keynote event at 7 p.m., followed by a dessert reception.

Dr. Rolf Wolfswinkel, professor of modern history at NYU, will discuss "A Girl Who Never Was" — the idea that Anne Frank's popularity has blurred real knowledge and understanding of her. $10/free for members. RSVP requested to (248) 553-2400. Holocaustcenter.org.
