HMC announces winners of competition

FARMINGTON HILLS — The Holocaust Memorial Center Zekelman Family Campus recently announced the winners of the inaugural Kappy Family Anne Frank Art and Writing Competition.

The competition, available to Oakland County students in grades eight through 12, included drawings, paintings, photography, poetry, essays and short stories.

Walled Lake Consolidated Schools winners included essay first-place winner Elena Bultuis, a senior at Walled Lake Northern

High School; and drawing second-place winner Grace Ludwiczak, a junior at Walled Lake Northern.
