Holocaust Memorial Center's Annual Art & Writing Competition

The deadline for the Kappy Family Anne Frank Art & Writing Competition from the Holocaust Memorial Center Zekelman Family Campus is quickly approaching. The entry deadline is Friday, March 31.

The theme of the first annual competition is "The Power of One," emphasizing the impact that an individual can — and must — make in the world.

Open to Oakland County students in grades 8-12, the competition invites them to create a written or artistic response to the following quotation of Anne Frank's: "How wonderful it is that no one need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world."

The competition includes three art categories: drawing, painting and photography. Pieces must be two-dimensional and not exceed 18" x 24." Each also must include a 150- to 200-word artist statement. It also includes three writing categories: poetry, essay or short story. These entries may not exceed three, single-spaced pages. First, second and third place prizes will be awarded in each of the categories.

For more information, rules and to access a registration form, visit holocaustcenter.org/competition or contact Haley Schreier at (248) 553-2400, ext. 128. ➔
