

OCTOBER 4, 2017
Vol. 14, No. 40

West Bloomfield BEACON

Also serving Orchard Lake, Sylvan Lake and Keego Harbor

COMMUNITY BRIEFS

Orchard Lake couple to be honored by Holocaust Memorial Center

FARMINGTON HILLS — During its 33rd anniversary dinner, the Holocaust Memorial Center will honor Susan and Nelson Hersh for their commitment to helping others and their shared work to make a difference.

Nelson Hersh is an orthodontist with a practice in West Bloomfield. He is also the vice president of the West Bloomfield School District Board of Education, and he's on Gov. Rick Snyder's Council on Genocide and Holocaust Education.

Susan Hersh is a volunteer who dedicates her time to her temple and to children with disabilities.

The dinner will take place at Congregation Shaarey Zedek in Southfield at 7 p.m. Ann Curry, the award-winning journalist and former NBC News anchor, will deliver the keynote address.