

Videos About The Kindertransport

The Power of Good

Matej Minac

This is the story of Nicholas Winton who created a Kindertransport for the children of Czechoslovakia and saved 669 Czech children from almost certain death at the hands of the Nazis.

The Kindertransport – Goodbye Home

This is a 30 minute download from <http://www.teachers.tv/video/17842>

The video shows three adults going back to their childhood homes and remembering what it was like to live under the Nazi regime. These adults were part of the Kindertransport as children.

My Knees Were Jumping – Remembering the Kindertransport

Melissa Hacker

Surviving participants, including Hacker's mother, tell the story of their journey on the Kindertransport and its impact on their lives.

Into the Arms of Strangers

Mark Jonathan Harris

This story of the children on the Kindertransport includes memories of eleven kinder, an English foster mother and two of the Kindertransport organizers.

The Courageous Heart of Irena Sendler

www.hallmarkhalloffame.com has a video about Irena Sendler, the Polish Catholic woman who smuggled Jewish children out of the Warsaw ghetto. Go to the website and then type Irena Sendler in the search box.